

Project Idea

Terminologies

- User server: The Java program running on the user's computer that responds to requests from the web client.

Web client: The Java applet that runs on the web site that the client uses to listen to their music.

- Web server: The web site itself (including the Ruby code and the MySQL database)